(updated location)

The 11th Circuit Court of Appeals has scheduled Oral Arguments Friday, May 3, 9am at the Federal Appeals Building, in Atlanta, in Imam Jamil Al-Amin federal appeal case that he has been fighting for 17 years.

The FBI has admitted in over 44,000 pages, so far, that it has hounded Imam Jamil (formerly known as H. Rap Brown) for more than 40 years - for speaking out against the oppression faced by Black & other peoples inside and outside the United States.

The legal aspect of the Campaign to Free Imam Jamil is multi-level. It challenges, at the U.S. federal level, the trampling upon Imam Jamil's 1st Amendment rights to speak and write. At the state level, the challenge is to the State of Georgia's factual, circumstantial contradictions, the withholding of evidence, manipulations, pressure tactics and outright lies.

More fundamental than civil or constitutional rights are HUMAN RIGHTS. The United States is guilty of violating Imam Jamil's Human Rights. El Hajj Malik Al-Shabazz (Malcolm X) warned that the U.S. must be taken to the World Court.
